BTOM Whitepaper Download - Terms and conditions:

The Institute of Export and International Trade ('IOE&IT') has created the Border Target Operating Model whitepaper as an opportunity for both you and the IOE&IT to understand if your organisation will be affected by upcoming legislative and regulatory changes.

There is no obligation for you to download this paper, however should you choose to access and download the whitepaper, it will be treated as your consent for us to contact you advising whether we believe you will be affected by any of the aforementioned upcoming changes.

We will temporarily store your details, and will only contact you in regards to providing recommendations for support in navigating the Border Target Operating Model changes.
